Website Terms of Use

Internal Medicine Associates of Texas (IMAT)

These Terms of Use apply to your access to and use of the Internal Medicine Associates of Texas (IMAT) website. By using this website, you agree to use it lawfully and in accordance with these terms. If you do not agree, please discontinue use of the website.

1. General Information, Not Medical Advice

Website content is for general education and information only and is not a substitute for a physician's examination, diagnosis, or treatment. It should not be used to make medical decisions without consulting an appropriately qualified clinician. The website itself does not establish a physician-patient relationship.

2. Medical Emergencies

Do not use this website, its contact forms, or general email addresses for emergencies or urgent medical symptoms. Call 911 or seek immediate emergency care if you believe you have a medical emergency.

3. Appointments, Messages and Patient Portal

Submission of an appointment request or online form does not guarantee an appointment or immediate response. Any clinical communication, records request, or portal functionality may be governed by additional instructions and policies. Do not send confidential medical information through general website forms unless the practice expressly identifies a secure method for doing so.

4. Accuracy and Availability

We aim to keep website information accurate and current but do not guarantee it is complete or free of errors. Services, providers, locations, insurance participation, and hours can change. Please verify time-sensitive information with our office. The website may be updated, interrupted, or withdrawn without notice.

5. Acceptable Use and Intellectual Property

You may use this website for lawful, personal, noncommercial purposes. Do not attempt unauthorized access, disrupt its operation, introduce malicious code, or misuse patient or staff information. Unless otherwise indicated, website text, graphics, branding and other original material are owned by IMAT or used with permission. Reuse beyond applicable law requires permission.

6. Third-party Services and Links

Links or integrations with third-party websites are provided for convenience. IMAT is not responsible for content, availability, or terms controlled by third parties.

7. Privacy

For website data practices, see our Website Privacy Policy. For information about how protected health information is used and disclosed in providing care, see our HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices.

8. Legal Limitations

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the website is offered on an as-available basis without a promise of uninterrupted access. Nothing in these terms limits patient rights or duties under HIPAA or other applicable law, or disclaims liability where prohibited by law.

9. Updates and contact

We may revise these terms, with changes taking effect when published unless stated otherwise. Questions about the website may be directed to our office at 972-566-8899 or email at info@imedtexas.com.
